That an automobile bus line be put in service between Anacostia, Good Hope, and Garfield by spring is the wish of the members of the Original Garfield Citisens' Association, who last night, at the home of Frank Scott, on Alabama avenue, perfected a temporary organisation for the furthering of this project. Temporary officers were chosen as follows: W. R. Giles, president; Aaron Bruce, vice president; Richard Chase, treasurer; William H. Lewis, jr., secretary. The need of such a service was discussed at length. The extension of the city water supply to Garfield will be accomplished at the first opportunity, and the first building to receive the service will be the public school in Alabama avenue. The association will make an effort to have the electric light wires extended on the important streets in that suburb.
